TELENOR GLOBAL SERVICES, AS
CPNI OPERATING PROCEDURES FOR ENSURING COMPLIANCE WITH 47 U.S.C. § 222 and 47 C.F.R. §§ 64.2005, 2007- 2009

Every telecommunications carrier has a duty to protect the confidentiality of proprietary information of, and relating to, other telecommunication carriers, equipment manufacturers, and customers, including telecommunication carriers reselling telecommunications services provided by a telecommunications carrier.

CONFIDENTIALITY OF CARRIER INFORMATION

A telecommunications carrier that receives or obtains proprietary information from another carrier for purposes of providing any telecommunications service shall use such information only for such purpose, and shall not use such information for its own marketing efforts..

COMPANY SERVICES PROVISION

Telenor Global Services, AS (“the Company”) is an interexchange long distance service provider. The Company provides primarily international services such as dedicated point to point services. The Company does not provide presubscribed 1+ domestic long distance service.

CUSTOMER PROPRIETARY NETWORK INFORMATION (“CPNI”)

CPNI includes information 1) that relates to the quantity, technical configuration, type, destination, location, and amount of use of a telecommunications service subscribed to by any customer of a telecommunications carrier, and that is made available to the carrier by the customer solely by virtue of the carrier-customer relationship; and 2) information contained in the bills pertaining to telephone exchange service or telephone toll service received by a customer of a carrier. CPNI does not include subscriber list information, which is customer information published in a telephone directory.

MARKETING PROCEDURES

The Company markets its services solely through direct sales.

UTILIZATION OF CPNI

- (1) The Company obtains and utilizes CPNI solely for the purpose of providing interexchange and information services to its customers, billing its customers for its services, collecting payment for its services, and maintenance and repair of services. Where necessary, the Company may use, disclose or permit access to CPNI to protect its rights or property or the rights or property of its underlying carrier, to protect users of its services and other carriers from fraudulent, abusive, unlawful use of or unlawful subscription to its services.
- (2) The Company uses, discloses, or permits access to CPNI to provide or market service offerings among the interexchange and information category of service to which the Customer already subscribes.
- (3) The Company does not use, disclose, or permit access to CPNI to identify or track customers that call competing service providers or for any other purpose that is prohibited by the FCC's rules.
- (4) Without Customer approval, the Company does not use, disclose or permit access to CPNI to provide or market service offerings within a category of service that the Customer does not already subscribe in accordance with the FCC's rules.

CPNI DISCLOSURE TO THIRD-PARTIES

The Company does not disclose CPNI of its current or former customers to any third-party except as required by law or regulation, or under confidentiality agreements in accordance with FCC rules, or upon customer request.
